Shades of Lavender Farm Sequim Washington

Shades of Lavender Farm is in Agnew, Washington, located between Sequim and Port Angeles.

Shades of Lavender farm became a reality after returning from a wonderful honeymoon in Hawaii in the spring of 2000.

Damon and I wanted to do something where we could spend more, if not all, of our time together. Both of us love the outdoors and gardening so the birth of "Shades of Lavender" Farm.

ALL THE PRODUCTS ON OUR WEB SITE WERE HAND MADE BY US. GROWN ON OUR FARM OR WERE MADE USING OUR LAVENDER FROM THIS YEAR'S HARVEST.

WE USE NO CHEMICAL FERTILIZERS, PESTICIDES OR HERBICIDES ON OUR PLANTS. THE SUPPLY IS LIMITED.

We are enjoying an abundant harvest of beautiful lavender. We believe it to be some of the most fragrant lavender bundles and sachet you can buy. This season proved to be very rewarding for us.

Seeing the expression, listening to all the positive comments and being told how beautiful and relaxing our farm is has made our hard work over the last three years totally worth while.

We look forward to seeing many of you again and meeting more of you lavender lovers next season.
